

Olmsted-Howden.

A very pretty wedding of two of Griggs county's well known young people occurred Wednesday, Dec. 15, at 8 o'clock, when Miss Edith Howden and W. A. Olmsted were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Howden, of Clearfield township. Rev. Dingle of Cooperstown tying the nuptial knot.

The bride is a young lady very well and favorably known in the vicinity of Clearfield where she was raised from a child.

The groom came to North Dakota several years ago from Cairo, N. Y., and for a number of years was in partnership with W. D. Sinclair of Hannaford in the machine and furniture business, after which he moved onto the old Sinclair farm in Ball Hill township where he has resided until the present time. He has always been known as a young man of integrity and honor and has a large circle of friends in this vicinity.

The outside guests present at the wedding were Mr. Richard Howden of Carrington, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Edland of Sanborn and W. D. Sinclair of Hannaford.

The young people left Friday evening on an extended wedding trip through the East, where they will visit Niagara Falls and Mr. Olmsted's old home in New York state. They will return early in the spring and accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Gene Olmsted will move to Strathmore, Canada, where they will make their future home.

We feel sure that their many Griggs county acquaintance will join us in extending to these young people best wishes for a happy and prosperous future.
