

Rosvold-Jellum

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. John K. Stromme last Friday afternoon. The contracting parties were Ida Marie Jellum, and Mr. Charlie E. Rosvold. Rev. P. A. Thoreson was the officiating clergyman who tied the nuptial knot pronouncing the ceremony which united the lives of these estimable young people. The wedding was a quiet one, witnessed only by the immediate relatives of the bride and groom.

After the ceremony a bounteous and delicious dinner was served; the table fairly groaning beneath its weight of rich viands.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Iver Jellum of Cannon Falls, Minn., and has been a resident of Griggs county for about two years.

The groom is well and favorably known here, having resided in this community for a long period of years. He has a farm near Una, Sask., Canada, where the young couple will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Rosvold left the same day for the home of the bride's parents at Cannon Falls, where they will remain for a month before leaving for their Canadian home.

It is a pleasure to chronicle the marriage of such worthy young people and the Enterprise waits to them its sincerest congratulations.
