

MRS. E. C. EVENSON

Mrs. E. C. Evenson passed away last Wednesday, April 11, 1906, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon after an illness of nearly two weeks.

Deceased was in her forty-first year. Her maiden name was Emma Stee and belonged to the well known Stee family, pioneers in Barnes county. She was married to E. C. Evenson, who was one of the earliest settlers in this county. Four children were born to them, the oldest, Miss Rosie, being about twenty years of age and the youngest a baby about 6 months old.

The funeral took place Monday from the St. Olav church. A large number of friends of the bereaved family honored the memory of the departed one by being present at the impressive funeral services. Mrs. W. S. Hyde was at the organ and played the funeral march. The church choir from Hannaford sang and Miss Ida Peterson rendered a solo. Student Jenson of the Theological Seminary spoke in English and Rev. Thoreson preached the funeral sermon.

The coffin was covered with flowers, many of them coming from relatives in Wisconsin. The Hannaford M. B. A. lodge, of which deceased was a member, also placed a beautiful wreath on the coffin.

Mrs. Evenson had seen the pioneer days in this region and gone through many hardships. She and her husband have worked hard and they had built for themselves a beautiful home. They could reasonably look forward to many happy days, but it should not be. The Grim Reaper came and changed everything.

The bereaved husband and the motherless young ones have the sympathy of all in this sad affliction.
