

... ..

Mrs. Carl Mathewson died last Saturday at Walum of typhoid fever after an illness of two weeks or more duration. Deceased was a young woman and leaves her husband and two children. Mr. Mathewson was formerly engaged in farming near Dazey, but is this fall running a threshing outfit west of that town. Interment took place in the Dazey cemetery.