

Nels Ose, who recently died in the hospital at Valley City, was brought to Dazey for interment. Mr. Ose was living in Canada and was taken ill with typhoid fever, caused by the use of slough water. There were seven cases on the same farm. The others are slowly improving.—Wimbledon News.