

Carl Forsberg, the 18-year-old son of John Forsberg, died at the hospital at Rochester last week after a long period of suffering from tuberculosis of the throat. The remains arrived in Hannaford Thursday, the funeral being held Sunday, interment taking place in the Union cemetery.

---