

Mrs. George Birks who resided just north of Jamestown died very suddenly on Saturday afternoon of asthma. She had been to Jamestown and died a few minutes after returning home. She had been feeling as well as usual during the day and her death was a great shock to her husband and family. She was seventy years old and had been a resident of North Dakota for 27 years.