

Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Boyd returned on Thursday evening from Minneapolis where they had been called on account of the sickness of their son-in-law, Mr. Fry. He had been an invalid for some time and passed away while they were there from an abscess on the brain.