
Death of Mrs. Alfred Dickey, Sr.

The news of the death Jan. 16th, of Mrs. Alfred Dickey, Sr., wife of the late Alfred Dickey has been received here. Burial was at Greenwood, Indianapolis, where her husband is buried, his death occurring in this city some seven years ago. Her son, Alfred Dickey of Minneapolis, of the firm of Wells & Dickey was with his mother a good deal of the time during several weeks preceding her death. She has been gradually failing and in ill health for some months. Mrs. Dickey, who was long a resident of Jamestown, has many acquaintances among the older residents of the place, who will regret to hear of her death.—
Alert.
