

The death of LeRoy Dimmery, a lad who was brought to the Jamestown City Hospital from Beaver Creek, occurred at 3:30 a. m. Saturday. Death was brought on by typhoid fever, supposed to have been caused from drinking impure water. His father and sister are also in the hospital, both suffering from the same malady.