

Funeral of Miss Nettie Hennings

The funeral of Miss Nettie Hennings which was held on Friday afternoon was largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. McCoy, pastor of the M. E. church at Carrington, who delivered a sermon which was full of consolation and hope. Six young ladies of Courtenay who had been intimate friends of Miss Hennings acted as honorary pall bearers and with bowed heads and sorrowing hearts followed the remains of one of their number to their last resting place. As a mark of their appreciation of the life and character of Miss Hennings the young ladies of Courtenay decorated the church in an appropriate manner, pansies and sweet peas being used in profusion, and there is not a young lady in Courtenay who does not feel deeply the loss of one who was a shining example of purity in young womanhood. The sorrowing parents and other relatives have the sincere sympathy of everyone in the community in this their hour of sorrow.
