

Jacob Isely received the sad intelligence yesterday that his father died yesterday morning, at Axtell, Kansas. He was 79 years of age and had been failing for some time. Mr. Isely has visited him every year since he has been up here but is unable to attend the funeral on account of the busy season in the elevator business.