

Mrs. Gustav Johnson who resided about fourteen miles north of Courtenay died on Sunday after a lingering illness. Mrs. Johnson was one of the old timers in that part of the country and her husband died about three years ago. The funeral was held yesterday and interment took place in the Glenfield cemetery.