

The death of Mrs. Charles Kinney occurred at her home in Jamestown at 8:30 o'clock Friday morning. Her death was due to cancer. Mrs. Kinney was one of the best known earlier settlers of Jamestown. She came here first on her way to Fort Rice, in 1861. She arrived, escorted by a pack train, which was the conveyance in those days before the railroad graders reached Jamestown.

---