

Matt Scrutek died yesterday at Jamestown of consumption. This is an extremely sad case, as the young man was homeless and without relatives in this country, having come here from Poland four years ago. He was cared for by Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kupka since early last spring until quite recently when he was taken to Jamestown where he finally succumbed to the dread disease.