

Lange-Donat

A very pretty, but quiet wedding took place March 1st at the German Lutheran church southwest of town, when Miss Helen Donat, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kracht, was united in marriage to Edward Lange, a young farmer of that vicinity.

The Misses Caroline Donat and Martha Kracht took their place as bridesmaids, and Walter Lange and Edward Schumacher acted as best men.

The ceremony which was read by the Rev. C. H. Lueker was beautiful and impressive.

The bride was dressed in a beautiful cream colored dress, trimmed in appleque, and wore the usual wedding veil, with a wreath of carnations and roses, carrying a handful of the same. The groom wore a suit of dark blue.

Only a few of the most intimate friends were present at the sumptuous wedding dinner, which was served at the home of the bride's parents.

The young couple will go to housekeeping on the farm which the groom has prepared, there to live forever one long honeymoon.
