

PETERSON-ERICKSON

A PRETTY HOME WEDDING OCCUR-
AT THE HOME OF MR. AND MRS.
CARL ERICKSON ON WEDNESDAY

A very pretty home wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Erickson nineteen miles northwest of Courtenay yesterday afternoon at one o'clock when their daughter Esther was given in marriage to Mr. Amandus Peterson, a prosperous farmer about fourteen miles northeast of Courtenay. The ceremony was performed by the Rev.

in the presence of about fifty invited guests and after the ceremony and the congratulations the guests sat down to a sumptuous wedding dinner which had been prepared by Mrs. Erickson.

The bride, who is a charming young lady, was gowned in white silk and was attended by Miss Hulda Peterson and Miss Emma Erickson. The groom wore the conventional black and was attended by Mr. John Kirkeby and Mr. Henry Read. Miss Frida Erickson and Miss Mabel Olson acted as flower girls, all of the young ladies being dressed in white,

Mr. Peterson is one of the substantial farmers in this section of the country and is classed among the old timers and he has won a competency which will enable him to enjoy his wedded life. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erickson who have resided in North Dakota for the past twenty years and are numbered among its most progressive and highly respected class of citizens. The young people will go to housekeeping on the farm of the groom amidst the well wishes of their host of friends, among whom the Gazette wishes to be numbered.

Here comes the spring winds to chap, tan and freckle. Use Pinesalve Carbolyzed, (acts like a poultice) for cuts, sores, burns, chapped lips, hands and face. It soothes and heals. Stoddard Drug Co.