

Martin Albright, Jr., had the misfortune to break his leg last Thursday while hauling grain to town. In jumping off the wagon he fell under the wheels and one of them passed over his leg, causing a bad break just above the ankle. The injured member is improving rapidly and he is able to get around on crutches but it will be some time before it will regain its former strength.