

summer.

Henry Anderson is another of the citizens of Courtenay to go to Canada to get some land. If all who have taken land this fall leave for that country in the spring there will be a great falling off in the population of this part of the country, as scarcely a week passes without from one to half a dozen goes on a land hunting expedition and Canada seems to be the great attraction at the present time.