

Several young women at the fair grounds, Thursday evening demonstrated their ability with rifle shooting at a mark. As a result, Raymond Bensch, son of John Bensch is at his home suffering from a wound in his side and Daniel Mason, a boy of about the same age had a bullet in his foot. The accident occurred at the shooting gallery, while the young women were practising and two of the bullets went wild, within a few minutes