

School Notes

Blanche Walsh, formerly a high school student, is visiting friends here this week.

Prof. A. E. Ross of Dawson spent Friday visiting the school.

The total enrollment of the high school this year reached 22 and the total enrollment for the whole school was 206.

Lucile, Abbie and Ida May Kingston were among the new pupils enrolled in the grades this week.

State High School Inspector Richard Heyward, was inspecting the school Wednesday.

Helen and Mary Kingston were enrolled for high school work Monday.

Emma Edwards has been unable to attend her classes for the past few days because of illness.