

School Notes

The appearance of the school yard has been greatly improved by the removing of the weeds from the south side of the walk.

Professor Haberlin, who was down from Grand Forks for a few days, visited the school Monday.

The dead trees of the school yard are being replaced by live ones this week.

Basket ball goals, for outside practice, were placed in the yard this week.