

James Crawford and family left this week for Grand Valley, Ontario, Canada, where they expect to make their home in the future. They have been residents of North Dakota for a good many years and the change at this time is made on account of Mrs. Crawford's health.