

Miss Emma Edwards left Tuesday morning for Jamestown where she will take up a course of study in the new college. Miss Edwards is an exceptionally bright and industrious pupil and will be found in rank with the best students in the new organization.