

The boys up north have been having barrels of fun with Gilbert Fadness lately. Gilbert informed the boys that he had joined the ranks of the benedicts and had the yoang lady along to prove his statements. He passed the cigars and everybody smoked but it finally leaked out that Gilbert was playing a practical joke on the boys and the fun they have been having with him since then hasn't been slow. Gilbert is still enjoying single blessedness and is out the price of the cigars.
