

t
r
5
1
n e
-
e s

requested to be present.

E. J. Hancock left last evening for Lethbridge, Alberta, where he will spend two or three weeks and while there will build a house and barn on his homestead which is located north and east of Lethbridge. He expects to get ready to move in the spring when he will spend the summer holding down his claim.