

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hancock departed on Friday for Kansas City, Missouri, where they expect to make their home in the future. Lem has a barber shop in that city which has been in charge of his brother during his sojourn in North Dakota and he expects to run that himself when he returns. They had many friends in Courtenay who regret to have them leave but wish them well.