

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hancock will leave this week for Kansas City, Missouri, where they expect to make their home in the future. He has been working in his brother's barber shop for the past year or two but decided that he did not like the winters in North Dakota and would seek a warmer climate.