

D. L. Hoffman returned from the Canadian northwest on Thursday morning of last week where he had been spending several days looking over that country. He met George Wright at Lethbridge and together they drove over the country tributary to that town and we understand they will purchase a section of land about thirty miles south east. Mr. Hoffman reports the weather up there backward and lots of snow and rain.