

Kensal Items

Journal, Aug. 13—Born, to Mr. and Mrs. George Hopkins, a son, August 5.

Miss Mary Nogosek is head bookkeeper in the H. R. Mallette store.

Mrs. A. Thompson returned from a visit with John D. Thompson at Hosmer, B. C. Mrs. Thompson was at Hosmer during the great fire and was a witness to the appalling scenes there.

The semi-annual installment of officers of Grant Lodge I. O. O. F. was held Thursday night and Gust Guenther, N. G., Grant Partlow, V. G., Glen Farrar, secretary and J. Frederickson, treasurer, were duly installed.

Wheat harvest is quite general this week and from the best estimates furnished the crop will average 10 bushels per acre. The berry is plump and some of the best grades of grain will be marketed here this year. Some barley has been threshed and while the yield per acre is not very large the quality is good.