

Kensal Items

Journal, Nov. 19—L. C. Lane is putting the wires on the new rural telephone lines, he has forty miles of new lines.

Harry House, H. W. LaFrantz, Ernest LaFrantz and Henry Jones left Tuesday for Ashcroft, B. C., where they will look over that country with a view of locating there.

P. O. Inspector Neil went over the proposed rural route south of town Wednesday. Mr. Neil will recommend the establishment of the proposed route to the P. O. department.

A. L. Cantleberry and wife moved to Mohall Monday where Mr. Cantleberry will engage in the watch repairing and jewelry business. They have lived here for the past two years and they leave behind them many friends who wish them well in their new location.

Miss Emily Feahmrick and Mr. Matt Bowers were married Thursday last at the home of the bride's parents in the presence of a few relatives and friends. The Rev. Flint of the M. E. church tied the knot that made two hearts happy. Mr. and Mrs. Bowers moved into the house recently purchased by Mr. Bowers, and they start life with the good wishes of many friends.