

Anton Konia has closed a deal for the purchase of the old homestead on section 26-141 63 which his father took up thirty years ago and which Tony broke with a yoke of oxen twenty eight years ago. There are 240 acres in the tract, 200 of which are tillable and it will be put into crop next season. It is said that the land brought about $30 per acre.