

Peter Kupka returned on Sunday evening from Rochester, Minn., where he had been in St. Mary's hospital and underwent an operation for gall stones and some kidney trouble. He has been having a hard time of it this winter but he is now feeling much better than he has been and thinks he is on the road to recovery.