

Peter Kupka left last evening for Rochester, Minn., where he will seek medical attention and will perhaps have an operation performed. Mr. Kupka has only recently recovered from an attack of typhoid fever and is now suffering with some other ailment.