

Ormsby McHarg a former resident of Jamestown and who conducted such good work for President-elect Taft during the recent campaign, was in the city Saturday on his way to the Pacific coast. Mr. McHarg stated to a Capital representative that there is no doubt that Acting Postmaster John Severn will be appointed to fill the vacancy now existing in the local post-office and that he will be named shortly after the inauguration ceremonies take place in Washington, D. C., on March 4 next. Mr. McHarg also stated that the entire country is extremely prosperous and that nearly all of the railroads are adding large quantities of supplies to their equipment, while all of the eastern factories are running to their full capacity. —Capital
