

be plentiful.

Nels Nelson was among the lucky ones at the land drawing with No. 216. This will give him a chance to select a quarter from some of the best land on the two reservations and after proving it up, his selection will be worth about $25 per acre, giving him a substantial start in life. Henry Pitcher, Sr., living north of town, drew No. 406.