

Mrs. John Olson shipped her household goods to Sibley, Iowa, the first of the week and on Tuesday evening, accompanied by her little daughter, left for that point, where they will make their future home.