

veve.

The farm of Henry Oxenrider hereafter will be known as the Spring Valley farm, 11 miles south and two miles east of Steele, N. D. The name is taken from the numerous fresh water springs which are the best in the state. Mr. Oxenrider has a small herd of horses, cattle, sheep and goats and one of the finest fullblood Percheron stallions in the Northwest.