

ALERT.

Little George Sampson, Jr., was the victim of a very unfortunate accident late Sunday afternoon while playing around the foundation of J. H. Flewell's residence, he tripped and fell into the basement upon a pile of stones, cutting a disagreeable gash in his knee, which necessitated several stitches. He is now at Wimbledon under the care of Dr. Caldwell, and at last reports was improving rapidly. —
Leal Advance.
