

C. A. Sanford is the proud possessor of a Transcendent crab apple tree which is literally loaded down with the fine yellow fruit. The tree is not large but the limbs are bending under their load and when we look at this we might imagine we were down east where fruit is not a luxury as it is in North Dakota. Mr. Sanford has a fine garden and is proud of it.