

clusively for addresses, as they are liable to become separated from the packages. Write directions on wrappers also.

"Don't seal up packages containing photographers, pictures, Christmas cards, New Year's cards; and mark them 'photo only,' 'books' or 'printed matter,' as the sealing will subject them to letter rates of postage.

"Don't hesitate to write any form of presentation of 'Merry Christmas,' 'Happy New Year,' 'Compliments of the Season,' or any writing of that nature of an impersonal character—with your name. It is encouraged and especially provided for in the postal regulations.

"Don't fail to register valuable letters and packages. The government insures their safe delivery and the extra cost is but 8 cents.

"Don't mail sealed packages of merchandise to Canada, and Mexico and Cuba. The rates to those countries for such matter are the same as in the United States viz., 1 cent per ounce when unsealed.

"Don't mail parcels of merchandise to foreign countries except by the parcels post system. The rate is 12 cents a pound; limit of weight, eleven pounds.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlin's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"I have used Chamberlin's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for several years for diarrhoea. I consider it the best remedy I ever tried for that trouble. I bought a bottle of it a few days ago from our druggist, Mr. R. R. Brooks. I shall ever be glad to speak a good word in its praise when I have the opportunity."—REV. J. D. KNAPP
