

Dr. J. W. Sifton, has decided to locate permanently at Portland, Oregon, where the family will make their future home. It is understood that the doctor has bought into an old established banking corporation and has other business and investment projects in view in Portland and vicinity.—Alert