

goods cannot be returned.

E. W. Stroh, who has been a resident of this place for the past twenty-five years, and for several years past engaged in the mercantile business, has this week moved his family and household belongings to Kensal, N. D. We are sorry to lose Mr. Stroh and his good wife, and wish them prosperity in their new home.—Sanborn Enterprise.