"Popular Edition" Laws of 1909

As usual, immediately after the adjournment of the present session of the legislature, the "Popular Edition" of the laws will be issued by R. D. Hoskins, Bismarck. The style of this work conforms to the official edition. It is set in large type and can be relied on as being accurate.

Quite a little statistical information is also given. Among other things we enumerate, the vote last election; a list of state and county officers; newspapers to date; practicing attorneys; governing boards of the state institutions, etc. Your orders will be promptly filled if given to the Gazette. The price is $1.
