

August Swanson has resigned his position as section foreman for the Soo after having spent about fourteen years in the employ of the company. His place is filled by a Mr. Rapp who has been with the N. P. and the Great Northern for a number of years. Mr. Swanson is now working at carpenter work with A. H. Saxerud and mending shoes as usual.

A large number of the Court