

G. O. Thompson had the misfortune to sprain his wrist on Saturday evening and it is needless to say that he is not working around the Gazette office this week as he is kept busy carrying his arm in a sling. He left last evening for Bismarck where he will register in the land drawing and will also visit his sister at Max before he returns. He expects to be able to return to work next week.

Mr. Thompson's return will be