

J. W. Helms and H. L. Thomson left early Friday morning with their car of horses and implements, bound for the Canadian Northwest, where they filed on homesteads and pre-emptions which they will now move onto and farm. Both are young men of good business ability and are experienced farmers, having proved up on homesteads in this country, and they will be a valuable acquisition to the community into which they are moving. They have a host of friends in this vicinity who although regretting their departure, extend their well wishes of success and wish them a life of plenty in King Edward's domain.
