

Miss Bertha Thorsgard arrived Tuesday morning from Portland, Ore., for a three weeks' visit with friends and relatives. She is taking a two years' course in vocal instruction in that city and is immensely pleased with her surroundings in the west. Miss Bertha has a remarkable voice for a person of her years and when it is fully developed she will no doubt make her mark in the world as a singer.