

Glen Wilson had a narrow escape from serious injury the first of this week. He shot off a cannon fire cracker and got too close to it when it went off and as a result got considerable powder in his face. This ought to be a warning to other boys to let the cannon crackers alone.