

Wimbledon Items

News, Aug. 14—Jerome Parks returned Thursday after spending several days traveling in Montana. He has decided to locate at Miles City, Mont., and expects to open his office there about Sept. 1.

W. H. Mark was in Wimbledon Wednesday having returned from Bergen, where he inspected the crop on his farm. He says the crops in that section of the state are good and the grain is a fine sample.

David Sandy left for his home at Fargo Wednesday evening. He has been employed as clerk at Crowley's drug store for the past few months and expects to enter college at Chicago about October 1st, where he will take a three years' course in dentistry. David's many friends here wish him every success.

C. W. Fulford returned Friday of last week after traveling for several weeks in the states of Colorado, Nebraska, Missouri, Iowa and Minnesota. "Uncle Charlie" says he met a number of old comrades, traveled a large territory, but had to pay from 50 to 75 per cent more for every article purchased, than he could get it here for.